REDS CELEBRATE EVERYWHERE IN HONOR OF FERRER

London, New York, Paris, Berlin, Havana Scenes of Violent Speeches.

English Socialists Threaten Spanish Embassy.

A REVOLUTION IS PREDICTED.

Paris, Oct. 18.—France today was placed in a position that may involve her in Spanish trouble, when representatives of the Spanish embassy abruptly rose and left the funeral of Officer Dufresne, killed Wednesday by mob before the Spanish embassy. The Spanish attaché left when Councilman Mossot, an official representative of the city, characterized Wednesday's demonstration as a "response to the call of conscience to the horrible news from Spain." He said Paris is standing faithfully to traditions of the glorious past.

London Socialists Riot.

London, Oct. 18.—Socialist members in the house of commons today prepared a resolution, calling for the immediate expulsion of the Spanish ambassador from England. This is the outcome of yesterday's anti-Spanish demonstration in which 10,000 Socialists and members of the labor organizations paraded to the doors of Buckingham palace and the Spanish embassy, carrying red banners and a sign "To H— with the Murderer, Alfonso." Police charged the mob around the embassy, who then went to the parliament buildings. Victor Grayson, a socialist, in a street address, said Edward could have prevented Ferrer's death, and is therefore responsible for anything happening in England.

New York Reds.

New York, Oct. 18.—Armed by a fiery speech of Emma Goldman, the anarchist known as the "Queen of the Reds," one thousand men and women socialists, anarchists and other radicals, packed an East Side hall Sunday afternoon and adopted resolutions denouncing the execution of Ferrer, the Spanish revolutionist.

Thirty policemen were on duty in the hall, but no arrests were made.

Revolution Predicted.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Alexander Leroux, chief of the Republicans at Barcelona, in an interview here predicted a revolution in Spain and the establishment of a republic. He considered the execution of Ferrer the outcome of the personal vengeance of King Alfonso, who, he said, always was convinced of Ferrer's complicity in the bomb outrage against the king on his wedding day.

At Amsterdam.

Amsterdam, Oct. 18.—Ferrer protest meetings here Sunday were followed by an attempt at a demonstration before the Spanish consulate, but the crowds were held in check by the police.

NIGHT RIDERS

SUBPOENAS BEING SERVED IN THE CASES.

Deputy United States Marshal Neel Makes Long Trip Across Rivers.

Elwood Neel, deputy United States marshal, returned Saturday evening from a trip through Marion, Caldwell, Trigge and Christian counties, where he served summons and subpoenas in the night rider suit of C. W. Rucker against Dr. Amoss and others. Mr. Neel said he was fortunate in serving the papers as he caught nearly all of the witnesses.

HOOKS DEFEAT SMITHLAND BALL PLAYERS SUNDAY.

The B. B. Hook baseball team cleaned up with Smithland yesterday afternoon by a score of 11 to 4 in eight innings. The Hooks got after the Smithland pitchers so hot that the game was abandoned in the eighth inning. Cooper started in the box for Smithland, but he gave way and several pitchers took turns at trying to stop the hard hitting Hooks. A feature of the game was a pickup of a sizzling grounder by Cox while going full tilt at third sack, while Harper lined out three batters three times. Council pitched a steady game and could have blanked the Smithland team.

LAST DAY BEFORE TAFT RETIRES TO BROTHER'S RANCH

San Antonio Extends Gracious Welcome to Chief Magistrate of Nation.

Visits Fort Sam Houston and Reviews Troops

MRS. TAFT IS IMPROVING.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 18.—Today was the last strenuous one before the four days' rest at his brother's ranch for President Taft. He visited several points of interest this morning and this noon made a speech in the shadow of the Alamo. This morning he rode to Ft. Sam Houston, where there was a reception of officers. He then reviewed the troops. He left at 2:15 for Kennedy for a few minutes stop. He will continue to Corpus Christi, arriving at 9 this evening. He will leave there in an automobile for his brother's ranch.

After 21 hours of continuous journeying from El Paso, he arrived here at 7:30 last evening and was given a cheering welcome. After being received by the city officials, the president was driven to the hotel with an escort of cavalry, and later in the evening proceeded to Fort Sam Houston, where he assisted in the dedication, and accepted, on behalf of the government, the chapel which has been erected at the famous old army post by the citizens of San Antonio.

President Taft had much to do as secretary of war with the building up of Fort Sam Houston into a brigade post, and has always had a deep interest in it. Half a dozen prominent socialists, members of the Political Refugees' Defense league, were locked up by the federal secret service men here. Friends notified them that they must stay in jail until President Taft leaves here.

The first information their families had that they were locked up came when they failed to return home. Investigation revealed them in their cells. A committee of the defense league called at the newspaper offices and the papers discovered their whereabouts. "Mother" Jones, the famous agitator and friend of western miners, who was here, has disappeared. It is believed she either is locked up because of a disturbance several months ago and is trying to secure her release. The great activity by anarchists and socialists since the Taft-Diaz meeting first suggested it.

Mrs. Taft Better.

President Taft received a telegram from Mrs. Taft Sunday, saying she had made the trip from Beverly comfortably. She felt so well she attended church with her brother-in-law, Professor Moore. President Taft was delighted when he read it. He has written letters to Mrs. Taft daily or sent a telegram, no matter how busy. He received a message every day from Mrs. Delaney or Mrs. Taft herself, bringing news of her condition.

Falls Fourteen Feet to Roadway

MR. JAMIE PAXTON SUSTAINS SEVERE INJURIES SUNDAY EVENING.

Mr. Jamie Paxton, chief clerk at the postoffice, stepped down a fourteen foot embankment yesterday afternoon and sustained severe wrenches to both ankles, his spine and chest, and today is confined to his bed. He was in the St. Johns neighborhood in an automobile, and the magneto to the car sustained an accident. Being without a battery he telephoned to Mr. Richard Rudy to take him one. Mr. Rudy missed the place, and thinking he was not coming, Mr. Paxton walked over to St. John to borrow some batteries from Father Reinhart. While talking to Father Reinhart an automobile was noticed in the distance, and thinking that it was Mr. Rudy, Mr. Paxton rushed to the road. In his haste he failed to see the steep embankment leading to the road and stepped off in the darkness. The car contained Mr. Joseph L. Friedman and some friends. They saw Mr. Paxton fall, and stopped their machine and brought him to the city. He is resting comfortably today, but it will be several days before he will be able to walk.

Mr. J. E. Wilhelm returned to Louisville this morning after visiting his sister here. He was in the city for a few days and will leave for Louisville today.

Tomorrow is the Last Day to Register.

Affidavit of Councilman Bower About McCracken Bridge Graft

The affiant, W. L. Bower, states that he is a resident of Paducah, McCracken county, Kentucky, and that he has been for some years past; that he was a resident of said county on the fourth day of August last and he was in company with J. T. Oliphant, president of the Vincennes Bridge company, from about 7 o'clock on the morning of August 4 until the Louisville train left near 12 o'clock that day and that he conversed with the said J. T. Oliphant during the time and that said Oliphant made a statement to him concerning the contract for the Clark's river and Perkins' creek bridges and that statement was made without any solicitation on the part of the affiant nor was he requested to keep any part of it a secret and that statement was in words and figures as follows, to wit: "This is the fiercest bunch in McCracken county that I have ever gone up against and I have been in the bridge building business for a number of years and I have 38 foremen on bridge construction. I had to fix the whole gang. I had to settle with all of them. But I don't care. I will make $4,000 on it anyway." (Signed) W. L. BOWER. Subscribed and sworn to before me by W. L. Bower this thirteenth day of October, 1909. Arthur Y. Martin, notary public McCracken county, Kentucky. My commission expires February 17, 1910.

Councilman W. L. Bower made the foregoing affidavit, concerning the statement of Mr. Oliphant, of the Vincennes Bridge company, agent of the county bridge controversy.

On the same day that Mr. Bower swears Mr. J. T. Oliphant made the statement he told it to Mr. R. W. Tully in the presence of Mr. Robert Noble. When Mr. Tully was seen he remembered the statement in substance and that he could recall the date as August 4 because he made an entry on his books. Mr. Oliphant and Mr. Bower rented a horse and buggy from him that morning for the purpose of making a drive, and on his return to the stable Mr. Bower told Mr. Tully and Mr. Noble of the statement.

A Democratic magistrate told a Sun reporter yesterday and afterwards repeated it to Mr. Hazelp that a man, whose name he refused to disclose told him the same statement was made by Mr. Oliphant to two other men. He refused to divulge any names, saying the men did not care to become entangled in it. However, the information was conveyed to the grand jury.

What the News-Democrat Said.

The News-Democrat said Sunday: "As a result of the slanderous charge uttered by Thomas N. Hazelp, the Republican nominee for county judge, at Florence Station, the past week, to the effect that John T. Oliphant, president of the Vincennes bridge company, of Vincennes, Ind., had told a 'prominent citizen' that he had to fix the whole 'court house gang' before he could build the Clark's river bridge, and which was published in the afternoon Sun without any effort to ascertain the truthfulness of it, the grand jury took up the matter and probed it to the bottom. The foregoing report of the grand jury brands the whole story as a lie, whether or not it was ever told to Hazelp as he repeated it. The grand jury had every member of fiscal court, the county judge, Hazelp and Councilman W. L. Bower, the citizen who is alleged to have made the statement to Hazelp, before it, and sifted the matter to the bottom. While the proceedings of the grand jury room are secret it has leaked out that Councilman Bower's statement to the grand jury was the very opposite to what Hazelp accredited to him. Councilman Bower, it is said, told the grand jury that President Oliphant told him that it was the most rigid contract he had ever been compelled to comply with, also that the best of everything was demanded. In substance this was what he told the inquisitive (sic) body. His evidence corroborated the testimony of the county judge and members of fiscal court. All testimony in the grand jury room is given under oath. "Again, the News-Democrat demanded the Sun to produce the affidavit of the 'prominent citizen' he claimed would be sprung. It has been called for on several occasions, and the last week of the evening organ was 'You know Hazelp has it. Let us play the game as we see it.' "It may be inferred from this statement that the Sun will not tell the truth, but continue to lie, as it has all along on this matter. The Sun, as well as Mr. Hazelp, knows that Councilman Bower declined to make any such affidavit, but they continue their dirty, besmirching, assassination of character by silently refusing to acknowledge the truth. "A report had been circulated that an attempt was made to indict Hazelp and the Sun for criminal libel, when no effort of the kind was ever contemplated. When the charge was made it was placed before the grand jury and if facts had been substantiated indictments would have followed against the so-called 'gang.' "Hazelp has not seen fit to retract his Florence Station speech and the Sun has failed and refused to

LAND COMPANY TO OPEN AN ADDITION

INDIANAPOLIS SYNDICATE PROPOSES TO SELL OFF OLD FAIR GROUNDS.

Promoters from Indianapolis, Ind., have taken an option on the old fair grounds, which is located on the Mayfield road and adjacent to the south yards of the Illinois Central railroad. It is proposed to plat the land and to sell it in lots, and it is said that the work will be done in the next few months. The property is owned by Jake Biederman and Henry Biederman.

The property is about one-fourth of a mile square and is near the city and near property that is being developed. The price has been kept secret, but it is understood that the Messrs. Biederman have been guaranteed a large sum. The promoters have taken the option it is said on the strength of the railroad developments that will be done in the city.

The land is level and well suited to be platted. It has been under cultivation since the discontinuance of the race track, many years ago. Werten's addition is near the land. Other additions in the vicinity have been platted.

Honest Man Takes Life When Bank is Short

Mineral Point, Wis., Oct. 18.—Two are dead as the direct result of closing the First National bank, following the disclosure of $200,000 shortage in accounts. Frank Hanscom, the cashier, went to his father's grave in Graceland cemetery last night and put a bullet in his brain. Mrs. John Grey, his aged mother-in-law, dropped dead of heart failure from the shock when told of his suicide. Hanscom was an employee of the bank since its organization in 1884. For ten years he was cashier, when it was closed after Vice-President Phillip Allen, Jr., admitted taking $200,000. Hanscom's books were examined. There was no shortage, Hanscom was despondent because his private fortune was wiped out, and the public will blame him for the bank disaster. He disappeared from home late yesterday. At 10 o'clock relatives searched and found him in the cemetery after midnight. Hanscom was popular here. His honesty was never impugned.

DR. W. E. BOURQUIN RESIGNS PULPIT OF EVANGELICAL

Congregation Will Act on Resignation Sunday, October 31.

Christian and Presbyterians Call Pastors.

NEWS OF PADUCAH CHURCHES.

Regret was expressed when it was learned that the Rev. W. E. Bourquin, pastor of the German Evangelical church, tendered his resignation yesterday. The resignation will be acted on October 31 at a congregational meeting. Dr. Bourquin has been pastor of the church nearly six years and in that time has endeared himself to a large circle of friends outside his church. His work here has been successful and his church members regret his determination to leave.

Dr. Bourquin is field secretary of the Kentucky Sunday school association, and was president of the McCracken county association one term. He will go to Owensboro this week to attend the state convention Friday, Saturday and Sunday, when the executive committee, of which he is a member, will elect a successor to E. A. Fox, formerly general secretary. There will be no services at the Evangelical church Sunday.

Pastor is Called.

A call was issued yesterday to the Rev. W. W. Burks, pastor of the Christian church at Nevada, Mo., to become pastor of the First Christian church of this city beginning January 1. A vote was taken at the morning services yesterday by the congregation after Dr. Burks' name was placed before them. He probably will accept.

The church has been without a minister for several months since the resignation of the Rev. Samuel B. Moore. From that time the pulpit has been filled on occasions by visiting ministers. Dr. Burks preached at the church Sunday, September 12, and made a favorable impression.

First Presbyterian.

The First Presbyterian church yesterday extended a call to the Rev. Henry W. Burwell, of New Orleans, who will preach here sometime in November.

The Rev. Henry W. Du Bose, of Louisville, preached two inspiring sermons at the First Presbyterian church yesterday. Mr. Du Bose, who is a student, is possessed of a magnificent speaking voice, over which he has complete command, and is a young man of high intellectual and spiritual attainment, and all who have heard him preach, predict that he will become a power in the pulpit.

Other Churches.

The services at the Broadway Methodist were the best that have been held there in some time, as services were attended by large crowds and two new members were received. The Rev. Sullivan preached an anniversary sermon for the Missionary society on "Thy Kingdom Come," and quite a large sum was realized. The meeting of the Laymen's Missionary society was a splendid success. Talks were made by Dr. Blythe, Dr. Sullivan and Mr. F. M. Burns. Tomorrow morning at 9:30 the examining committee for young preachers will meet at the Broadway Methodist church, four or five young men will be licensed to preach. The committee is composed of the Rev. J. W. Blackard, Dr. Sullivan, the Rev. T. J. Naylor of Lone Oak, and the Rev. G. W. Banks.

The usual good services were held yesterday at the Fountain Avenue Methodist church and the Rev. G. W. Banks preached two interesting sermons.

Well attended services were held at the Third Street Methodist church yesterday and also at Guthrie Avenue and Little's Chapel. There was no preaching yesterday at the Tenth Street Christian church as the pastor, the Rev. C. E. Jackson, was out of the city. The Sunday school and other services were well attended.

The services yesterday at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church were well attended. Dr. Landis' sermon on "God's Thought of Us" was interesting and instructive to the congregation. The main points of his sermon were: That the religion of Jesus Christ is a progressive one and that God is constantly making such new revelations as man is in position to receive. His greatest revelation was in his son Jesus Christ. The men's brotherhood will meet tonight at 7:30. The usual large congregations

WRIGHT TEACHES SOLDIERS TO FLY AT COLLEGE PARK

Takes Signal Corps Officers Aloft to Train Them in Steering.

Minor Accident With American Bi-Plane.

GOOD EXHIBITION AT PARIS.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Wright resumed instructing the signal corps pupils in aviation at the college park today when he made three flights for a total of 38 minutes before them. One trip was 18 minutes and 3 seconds, the longest ever seen here. Lahm was with him on one trip, and Lieutenant Humphrey and others, each acquiring skill in doing more steering than before.

Florenti Has Accident.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Florenti, in a modified Wright bi-plane, gave a thrill at the Juvisy today when his machine crashed to the ground from a slight elevation, smashing the propeller and otherwise damaging it. Florenti uninjured. Goadart, Nabat and Bussan made short flights. Nothing spectacular was attempted.

Flight at Paris.

Paris, Oct. 18.—Comte De Lambert in a Wright machine, circled the outskirts of Paris, flying 70 kilometers today. He was aloft one hour and returned to the aerodrome, landing exactly in front of the grand stand.

HIGHWAYMEN IS PUT TO FLIGHT BY VICTIM

N. L. Mayhugh, of 507 Trimble street, assumed the aggressive against a negro highwayman at Fifth and Trimble streets about 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning and forced the robber to flight. Mr. Mayhugh was carrying his knife open, he said, fearing a hold-up, and when he saw the negro spring from behind a fence with a drawn club, Mr. Mayhugh attacked him with a knife and cut him, he thinks, in the body. The blow from the club grazed Mr. Mayhugh's head and the highwayman fled.

MME. CASTELLANO IS ANNOYED BY DOUBLE

Mme B. Castellano, the palmist of 908 Broadway, is very wrath over the fact that a fake palmist, using her name and cards, has practiced at Henderson, Ky., where she is alleged to have taken a watch. Mme Castellano was annoyed by the Henderson police, who, learning of the presence here of a palmist of that name, and a warrant sworn out for her. Mme. Castellano, who is a noted palmist, has a complete alibi, having been in Paducah continuously since September 23, and at the very time the watch was taken.

All services at the Second Baptist church were well attended yesterday and the Rev. G. B. Smalley's sermons were interesting and instructive.

The meeting at the North Twelfth Street Baptist church closed last night and 60 new members have been received, there were four admissions yesterday.

A large attendance was present at the German Lutheran church yesterday and also at the church in the country.

WEATHER TOO WARM FOR FAST PLAYING

FOOTBALL GAME SUNDAY RE-SULTED NOTHING TO NOTHING.

Paducah Athletics and Marion, Ill.,
Struggle Over Pigs on the Gridiron.

RESULTS OF COLLEGE GAMES

Panting for breath and wet with perspiration the Paducah Athletic club's football team held the Marion, Ill., eleven to a tie yesterday afternoon at League park. Neither team was able to force a man across the line, and when time was called the score was 0 to 0. Owing to the warmth of the weather both teams worked slow, as a slight run exhausted the players so they could not fight hard.

The weather man was the person to blame for any fault found with the game, as he served ideal baseball weather, but for the player of mole-skin it was entirely too hot. Fum-bling is responsible for the Paducah boys not gaining the game, as several times the team worked the pig-skin within striking distance of the goal, only to lose it on a fumble. Most of the game was played in Marion's territory, and balancing both teams the P. A. C. team outclassed the visitors. However, the Illinois boys always stiffened when the Paducah chaps scented goal.

Several hundred people were out, as it inaugurated Sunday football in Paducah. Davis for Marion kicked off to Collins, who returned the ball a few yards. By line rushes the Paducah boys carried the ball down the field, but Marion stiffened and held. In a rush the ball was fumbled by Marion and Groves electrified the crowd with a run of about 60 yards. Wilson for Marion surprised the crowd, too, as he ran from across the field and tackled Groves in 20 yards.

MAULL BROTHERS, ST. LOUIS, MO.

of goal. In the tackle Groves bit a gash an inch long in his tongue, and injury unfitted him for play, but he gamely stuck with his team and gen-erated the players.

Paducah rushed the line, and then fooled Marion completely with a fake place kick, which was used as a for-ward pass to Reeder. Reeder had a clean dash of 12 yards for goal, but he muffed the beautiful pass from Groves and Marion recovered the ball. It was a play that should have resulted in a touchdown, and the fail-ure seemed to take the ginger out of the Paducah lads. Marion punted out of danger, and recovered the ball, but in the next play Reeder got the ball on a fumble. Bower went through the line for eight yards while Jones followed with five yards, and Paducah was within scoring distance on a beautiful crisscross play turned in to a successful forward pass to Groves. However, the advance was stopped by a fumble a minute later and Marion got the ball. Boatwright was knocked out. The half ended with Marion in possession of the ball on her 20 yard line.

After a rest the players recovered their breath, but the hot weather told on them. Paducah kicked off, but Marion was pushed back and an end run was called back because of offside. With 27 yards to gain, Marion punted to Groves. Paducah fumbled the ball an instant later, but Reeder fell on the ball. On an inside kick Paducah failed to make the ten yards and lost the ball. Marion was held until forced to punt and a long forward pass to Reeder was called back with a penalty. Paducah punted, recovered the ball and held Marion. It looked like the lads had braced and would win but lost the ball. Marion signaled for a punt but the ball rolled away and Paducah recovered it. In the plays Groves and Bower did splendid tackling, breaking interference and nailing the runner.

Next Marion failed on a forward pass and as the goal was in danger punted to Groves, who was knocked out. Cries were loud for Paducah to make a touchdown, and Jones by sheer force went through Marion's line for ten yards, while Bower responded with a gain through the line, Jeffries taking his place. The next two minutes of play resulted in a punting duel, as neither team had time to make a score, and the game ended with the ball in possession of Marion on her 20 yard line.

The Paducah Athletic club has a shifter team than last year, but yesterday it was unfair to judge the team as had the weather been right the team would have won from Marion. Marion had a heavy line with backs, and played good ball.

The teams lined up:

Maroons Win.
Chicago, Oct. 18.—The final score of yesterday's football game here, Chicago 14, Illinois 8, does not clearly show the superiority of the Ma-

Illinoisans were on the defensive practically all the time.

Nevertheless the plucky game by Illinois, which was defeated by Ken-tucky university last Saturday, sur-prised the Maroon adherents.

The Poacher.

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Asso-ciation.]

A shot.
"Hello! You there! What are you doing here?"

"Shooting pheasants. Isn't this for-est public ground?"

"Public? No."

The poacher looked fixedly on the other.

"Have you ever been told that you look like?"

"Look like whom?"

"—the emperor?"

"Yes. You are not the first who has told me that."

"I have only seen his pictures, and those taken in uniform. If you were to be similarly dressed you might pass for his majesty without detection."

"Do you really think so?"

"I certainly do."

"I wonder how it would feel to per-sonate the head of our great German fatherland. I think I should burst with pride. I have an idea. What a joke it would be for me to go to the emperor's headquarters and pretend to be the emperor."

"I'll bet you a thousand thalers that unless you run up against the emper-or himself or some of the royal family you can play emperor as long as you like."

"I take the bet. But first promise that you will not give me away."

"I promise that. But are you going to Berlin simply to enjoy the sensation of being emperor?"

"This majesty is not in Berlin."

"Where is he?"

"Follow me."

The two sportsmen, for such they were, moved away.

"Who are you?" asked the man who was to play emperor of the other.

"I am Heinrich Borgesser, a Ger-man American citizen. I have return-ed to visit my father, who lives near here."

"Do you shoot anywhere you like in America?"

"Pretty nearly. I live in Missouri. We can shoot anywhere there. Your name is?"

"Just now I am his majesty Em-peror William III. Don't think of me as any one else. You might betray me inadvertently."

"You are right. I will begin by ad-dressing you as 'your majesty.' Where are we going, your majesty?"

"Ho, ho! Your majesty! Say it again! We are going to a shooting lodge the emperor has some distance from here. He is hunting."

They walked for half an hour when his majesty said: "The shooting lodge is right up there. Don't be fright-ened."

"Frightened? Do you suppose an American can be frightened at royalty? Not I. I consider myself as good as the emperor."

"The devil you do!"

"See here," said Mr. Borgesser anxiously, "I'm not afraid of an em-peror, but I seriously object to skat-ing around with an impostor."

"Oh, you do? Very well, if you are afraid, pay me the thousand thalers."

"Not by a long shot. Proceed."

"The emperor's impersonator led the way to the lodge, threw down his game bag in which there were two pheasants and said to courtiers who came up obsequiously:

"This is Mr. Borgesser from Amer-ica. He will be our guest for the day. Let all possible consideration be shown him."

One took Mr. Borgesser's gun, an- other his game bag (brimful of pheas-ants), and another offered him re-freshment. He looked very uneasy and as soon as an opportunity offered whispered to the impostor:

"Suppose the emperor should sud-denly appear?"

"In that case I would win my bet. It would prove that I could not play the sovereign without detection."

Dinner was soon served, and the American sat down at table with "his majesty" and a small suite at the lodge.

"What do you do with poachers in Missouri?" asked "his majesty."

"There are no poachers, for there are no preserves."

"We jail them here. As a German-American citizen we are pleased to honor you, but as a poacher you will have to spend a few months in pris-on."

The American tried to laugh, but in-stead he turned pale.

"Then there will be a few more months' punishment for leze majesty."

"Leze majesty?"

"Didn't you say awhile ago that you considered yourself as good as the emperor? What do you think of that, gentlemen? This resident of the far west in America considers himself as good as himself."

"So that's your game," said the American, firing up, "by pretending to be emperor to get me in here for blackmail."

"His majesty" burst with an un-controllable fit of laughter. His suit looked dumfounded.

"Count," said his majesty to one of those at the table, "give Mr. Bor-gesser a check for a thousand thalers. He bet me this morning that I could personate myself without detection. While out after pheasants I found him shooting on the preserve with all the coolness of an American. And he had the impudence to tell me that he con-sidered himself as good as I."

Mr. Borgesser was astonished. The trepidation he had felt at "skating round with an impostor" vanished, but in its place came discomposure at hav-ing been a poacher on the imperial preserve and having told the emperor that he was "as good as he."

PAID WIFE TO RETURN.

She Told Story and Husband Tries to Kill Himself.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 17.—By paying his young wife $20,000 in cash and entering into a contract with her to be good in the future, E. B. Cowan, wealthy Atlanta business man, in-duced Mrs. Cowan to withdraw her suit for divorce and resume marital relations with him. Cowan entered into contract to be good several days ago. Today he learned that Mrs. Cowan had told the story and that she said he would not be good and she would have to leave him in spite of the payment of $20,000 to her. When Cowan learned that his wife was telling the story of the con-tract he felt greatly humiliated and bought poison and tried to kill him-self. The poison was snatched from Cowan as he had it at his lips.

Cowan was married only seven months ago to a beautiful girl. Mrs. Cowan in her suit for divorce charged her husband with cruelty. One al-legation was that Cowan favored race suicide and objected to her becoming a mother. Mrs. Cowan alleges she wanted a child, but that her husband told her she should never have one. It is understood that in the contract which Cowan signed to get his wife to return to him he agreed never again to advocate race suicide.

Cowan is being guarded to prevent another effort at self-destruction. He is worth over $200,000.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor, than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeton, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. GRAY HAIR BANISHED.
The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of mak-ing it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking al-most any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly re-store the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chem-ical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J.

TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Paducah People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Paducah people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which the article was unless convinced? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

J. W. Wootan, retired, 1033 Harrison street, Paducah, Ky., says: "I was a sufferer from kidney complaint and backache and my case was of several years standing. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I procured a supply at Du Bois Son & Co.'s drug store and their use brought very satisfactory results. Some years ago I told of my experience with this remedy in a public statement and lapse of time has only strengthened by high opinion of it."

(Statement given February 18, 1903.)

Mr. Wootan was interviewed on March 6, 1909, and he said: "I am glad to confirm all I have previously said regarding Doan's Kidney Pills. The cure this remedy effected in my case nearly ten years ago has been permanent."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WORTHY OF CONFIDENCE.

An Offer Backed By One of Our Most Reputable Concerns.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty broad statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair for you?

A most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. Their active principle is a recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This ingredient does not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember you can get them in Paducah only at our store, 12 tablets 10 cents; 36 tablets 25 cents.—The Rexall Store.—W. B. McPherson, Fourth and Broadway.

FARMERS' UNION

MEETING TO BE HELD AT DANVILLE, N. C.

Secretary Barnett Will Represent
Kentucky at the Tobacco Conference.

R. L. Barnett, secretary of the State Farmers' Union, left at 1:33 o'clock yesterday morning for Danville, N. C., to attend the interstate Farmers' Union Tobacco Growers' meeting which will be held there next Tuesday, October 19. At Gilbertsville Mr. Barnett was joined by John Grady, chairman of the Kentucky board and chairman of the national committee of the Farmers' Union, who will attend also.

The meeting will be for the purpose of arranging for the handling and selling of tobacco direct to the manufacturer. It will be attended by members of the union from North Carolina, Virginia and Kentucky, who are members of the Farmers' Union, will be in attendance. A large meeting is expected.

In speaking of the tobacco situation at present Mr. Barnett said that much tobacco was being pooled not only in this but in surrounding counties. He said the pledges were much better than he expected and the union anticipates a flourishing year.

Ballot Seven Feet Long.

The Auburn Citizen thinks it probable that between now and election time next year some such advertisement as the following will appear in the newspapers of South Dakota: "Wanted—A printing press that can print a ballot 10 inches wide and 7 feet long to the number of 125,000." The situation is this: At its last session the South Dakota legislature passed a law requiring that all propositions submitted to the people under the initiative and referendum shall be printed in full in a single column 10 inches wide. Six new laws and six constitutional amendments are to be voted on next year, and it has been ascertained that they will make a column 7 feet long if printed in fine type. The job printers of the state have no presses big enough to fill such an order, and the authorities are wondering how they are going to get their ballots. Perhaps some enterprising wall-paper factory might help them out. Thus there would be a happy combination of art and election reform.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current—Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all wear best feelings re turn. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. Blankenship, of Belk, Tenn. Only 50c at all druggists.

Daily Thought.

It's better being a hand car on the right road than a private one on the wrong.

Before Barrill opened up Cook says some one else opened a barrel.

A MEAN TRICK.

It was a mean trick. We admit it without a blush.

With the affidavit of Councilman W. L. Bower in our possession Saturday, ready for publication upon the expected grand jury report, after an editorial conference we decided to withhold publication until today, believing that the News-Democrat would think we had no affidavit and would exercise its penchant and talent for lying to the limit of desire, opportunity and ability. Our confidence was well founded. The News-Democrat yesterday made the following observations on the front page, all of which are lies: "The grand jury probed the matter to the bottom." "Councilman Bower's statement to the jury was the very opposite to what Hazelp accredited to him." "Councilman Bower told the grand jury that President Oliphant told him that it was the most rigid contract he had ever been compelled to comply with, also that the best of everything was demanded." "The Sun as well as Mr. Hazelp knows that Councilman Bower declined to make any such affidavit."

On the front page today, we publish the affidavit of Councilman Bower. More convincing even than an affidavit is the fact that the day Mr. Oliphant is alleged to have made the statement, immediately after Councilman Bower left him, and without any thought to future political consequences, Councilman Bower told two gentlemen what Mr. Oliphant had said to him.

It is remarkable that the News-Democrat never will learn that The Evening Sun does not bluff. When we say we have an affidavit, believe us we will publish it in due time, giving grand jury opportunity to investigate, county attorneys opportunity to do their duty, and defenders of those involved opportunity to lie to their hearts' content.

We cannot think of any more lies the News-Democrat can utter on this particular point, and to save reiteration, we publish today the affidavit that it said Councilman Bower declined to make.

MOULDING PUBLIC OPINION.

Influence is built upon confidence, and before a newspaper can truly be said to mould public opinion it must win and deserve public confidence. Confidence in turn cannot be predicated on a relatively high score of successful guesses; nor in beating a competitor to an opinion. That may temporarily swing a mentally demoralized minority; but sound conservatism, which always contemplates suspension of opinion until the returns are all in, and then a fearless exposition of all the returns, is the very groundwork of confidence.

As complete an example of the lack of that sound conservatism as ever we saw, is contained in two articles in our morning contemporary, the first published October 1, and the second October 17. They follow:

"There has been a deafening howl along Jefferson street from Twelfth to Eighteenth because of the oil the board of public works had placed on that part of the thoroughfare named several days ago. The smell of the oil is not only objectionable, but the people of the street and those who are so unfortunate as to have to pass that way say their shoes, the ladies' dresses and whatever comes in contact with the oil is virtually ruined. They say the oil is slow to soak away and that there is no hope of any early relief. Over on Broadway, which is threatened with a similar 'affliction,' the people too are howling and when they have to walk over the slush like the residents of Jefferson they will be heard afar. Oiled streets are not calculated to be popular in the city if the work on Jefferson is a sample."

"After a thorough test the experiment entered a few weeks ago of oiling certain streets in Paducah has proven its worth. In the beginning the News-Democrat was of the opinion that the work would not prove satisfactory and this belief was shared by the majority of the citizens living along the routes subjected to this experiment. Time has proven, however, that our fears were groundless, as the service is giving splendid satisfaction and promises to become a permanent practice in Paducah. The News-Democrat is at all times willing to give credit where credit is due, and in this instance finds pleasure rather than regret in acknowledging the apparent in this innovation."

In both the foregoing the News-Democrat has undertaken to express an opinion as to the merits of the oil on Jefferson street. In the first it said the oil was a failure. In the second it said the oil is a success. How can it tell whether or not oiling the streets is a success? That surface is expected to last a year or eighteen months. If next summer the dust nuisance on these streets is eliminated by the oil applied this fall The Evening Sun will say it is a great success. If the streets are dusty, we shall not hesitate to brand the experiment a failure. In the meantime it is only an experiment to be watched with interest. But we commend the board for having the progressive spirit to try it.

Frankly, we do not believe the News-Democrat is honest in either opinion. In the first one, it saw an opportunity in the oily condition of the streets to abuse a board of public works for which it entertains no love, overlooking the fact that the oil was purchased from the Standard Oil company, whose cause it championed when a general council of its own political faith refused to move the storage warehouse of the company out of the heart of the city. Perhaps, it has heard its master's voice since.

For our part, we are still fighting to drive the gasoline tanks outside the city; but we believe the company gave the city liberal terms for the oil and we are not vindictive enough to confuse a fair trade with a public nuisance. We shall watch and wait and hope for good results from the oiled streets.

Judge J. E. Jones, who tried the Reelfoot night riders, lost heavily in the night rider infected civil districts of his judicial circuit, but was elected by an overwhelming majority.

Same Old Story.

(From Judge.)

Last year, beneath the silver moon, He asked the olden question.

Her hand, he vowed, would be a boon—

"Say 'Yes,'" was his suggestion.

And from the bottom of his heart

Where love at last unpent it,

He murmured with a lover's art,

He called her "dear"—and meant it.

But yesterday she went downtown

And purchased a new bonnet.

She also bought a dinner gown

With sequins sewed upon it.

In fact, she knew his bank account.

When he had figured the amount,

And more than overpaid it,

He called her dear—and meant it.

QUARANTINE ON LOCAL THEATERS

SMALL CHILDREN MAY NOT ATTEND THEM.

Dr. H. P. Sights Reads Mortality Report for Month to Board of Health.

ELEVEN CASES OF DIPHTHERIA.

The quarantine against local playhouses and motion picture shows, which was decided upon Saturday afternoon by the health board went into effect this morning. It prohibits children twelve years of age and under attending until the board of health deems it best to raise the quarantine. Severe punishment will result if there are any violations. The theatrical managers will co-operate with the board of health in an effort to check the spread of diphtheria, as there are many cases scattered over the city. A notice, establishing the quarantine, was issued this morning by City Health Officer H. P. Sights.

Mortality Report.

At the meeting Saturday Dr. Sights read his monthly mortality report showing 25 deaths during the month, 13 colored and 12 white. Twenty-three births were recorded, 14 being white and 9 colored.

The report showed 11 cases of diphtheria and 2 of scarlet fever. No deaths from diphtheria so far this month have been reported.

Dr. Sights complimented the board of public works for oiling the streets and the health board endorsed the improvement. It keeps down the dust and prevents germs from being carried with the dust.

It was recommended by the health officer that the salaries of the two sanitary inspectors be increased from $40 per month to $60, owing to their proficient service.

COUNTY DEBATE

HAZELP AND BARKLEY SPEAK TWICE SATURDAY.

Large Audiences Hear Candidates for County Judge on the Present Issues.

Before a large and enthusiastic audience Thomas N. Hazelp, the Republican candidate for county judge, and Alben W. Barkley, the Democratic nominee, spoke Saturday afternoon at Ragland. Mr. Barkley began the speaking and told the audience how he had administered the affairs of his office of county attorney for the past three years and explained his settlement of the Smedley matter.

Mr. Hazelp as in his other speeches, confined his speech to the records of the county, as he had found them on the books at the court house, he stated that Barkley's settlement with the bonding company was too hasty and that the county was not likely to recover the rest of the money that Smedley had taken. He urged that the county prisoners be taken from the county jail and worked upon the roads and that a better and systematic system of bookkeeping be employed, so that anybody could go to the court house and examine the books and find what he wanted. He showed the extravagance of erecting the county sanitarium on the barren land that is now on, and said that it should have been erected on good soil and made self-sustaining. He also exposed the graft that had taken place in the erecting of the Perkins' creek and Clark's river concrete bridges, when the finances of the county were not in the best of condition. Mr. Hazelp promised that if he was elected county judge that he would run the county on an economical scale as possible.

Saturday night the candidates spoke at Maxon Mills before an audience of 250 citizens. Mr. Hazelp read the affidavit of Councilman W. L. Bower.

COUPON BOND

COUPON BOND betters by age, because it is made slowly.

You cannot hasten the process of paper making and get as good a paper as by the old slow method. You have to build a sheet of paper. That is why a blind man could tell a sheet of Coupon Bond in a room of other papers. The "feel" would tell him the character of the paper. Its strength and surface would tell the story of slow, careful manufacture.

Nature at Her Best

Look at the "Model A" Gossard Corset, which we depict herein, as drawn from life. Could any corset be more exquisitely beautiful? Could any corset give more genuine comfort, sitting or standing?

Model A is in more perfect accord with the fashions of the hour.

We make you, madam, the wearer, the judge. And we know that your answer will agree with that of thousands of other discriminating women who have found in the Gossard, absolute corset perfection.

This perfection is not accidental nor incidental. It is the achievement of the perfected methods of the New School of Corset Design from which emanates the Gossard.

Nature at her best is the ideal of this New School of Corset Design. This ideal is realized by methods that leave nothing to the judgment of the operatives. Every seam and gore is placed with scientific precision. Every bone is located with the accuracy that obtains in adjusting the balance wheel of a fine watch.

Model A is the extreme of long corset elegance and long corset comfort. It moulds the generously developed figure into lines of natural grace. The beauty of its sculptured habit back is instantly recognized. The hygienic construction of the front lacing feature is endorsed by physicians. Instead of pressure it gives support to the organs. It allows full diaphragm breathing; easily but surely compels a corset standing position; gives poise to the figure and grace to the carriage.

We should be pleased to have your judgment on the Gossard models for Fall.

MISS ZIMMERMAN, an expert corsetiere, trained under the tutelage of the New School methods will be in attendance. She will fit you personally and advise you as to the model that will give greatest charm to your type of figure.

This story is current in the Arkansas hills. A woman was telling some friends what a delicate childhood was hers.

of Heart Trouble Cured by Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had pains in my left side, and under my shoulder blade, could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath the least exertion would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. When I had taken six bottles I was cured."

MRS. C. C. GORKEY,
Northfield, Va.

If there is fluttering or palpitation it is an indication of a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the heart. It is not necessarily diseased—just weak from over-work. The heart may be weak just the same as the eyes, stomach or other organs. You can make a weak heart strong by taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy. Get a bottle from your druggist, take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

REV. MR. OAKLEY INSPIRED BY GOOD LISTENERS.

Large Crowds at Both Services at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

THE REVIVAL WILL CONTINUE.

The revival at the Cumberland Presbyterian church was more largely attended and more interest was manifested at yesterday's services than heretofore. The unconverted were shown their true pictures by the Rev. Mr. Oakley in such a manner that many were deeply impressed.

Mr. Oakley's subject, "The Christian as a Soldier," at the morning hour was both an admonishment and an exhortation and forcibly convinced his hearers. His subject at the evening hour, "Why I Am a Christian," created deep interest and feeling. His exhortation to those who indulge in worldly sins was so plainly and forcibly put that it seemed impossible to resist the appeal.

Today was a day of rest and relaxation to the preacher and his faithful workers and no services were held this afternoon.

Mr. Oakley's subject for tonight will be "Jonah and the Whale," a big fish story, which he delights in telling along with some of his own experiences with large fish.

It has been reported that the revival might be brought to a sudden close, owing to some previous engagements of the Rev. Mr. Oakley, but until further announced the meeting will continue, with services at 10 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7 o'clock at night.

Mr. T. D. Fooks, brother of the pastor, the Rev. D. W. Fooks, who has returned from his bedside at Dukeford, Tenn., says that he is rapidly improving and is now beyond the crisis, his fever being broken. He is still very weak and it will be some days before he is able to return home.

T. J. ATKINS IS BURIED SUNDAY

WELL KNOWN FINANCIER PASSED TO REWARD.

Had Been Prominent Resident of Paducah Many Years of Active Life.

HAD BEEN PUBLICLY HONORED.

Lingering between life and death for several days, Thomas J. Atkins, aged 80 years, surrendered to his maker at 3:54 o'clock Saturday afternoon, closing an honest and upright life of a venerable citizen of Paducah. His only living child, Mr. Ed L. Atkins, of Enid, Okla., was with him at the end. His death ended a remarkably busy career, he being one of the foremost business men of this city for many years.

Mr. Atkins was born in March, 1829, in Manchester county, Virginia, ten miles from Richmond. He came to McCracken county and located in Paducah, having lived here for a period of 75 years. He died at his old home, 319 North Sixth street, where he had lived for 43 years. In coming to Kentucky from Virginia he made the trip with his parents overland under many difficulties. His father died soon after they located here and Mr. Atkins was left to support his mother. He fought bravely and overcame many hardships. He was captain of several steamboats when young and was among those gentlemen who organized the wharfbottom company. During the civil war he was marshal of this city and also for ten years he was treasurer of McCracken county and treasurer of the county road company, when roads were built by private capital and revenue was derived from the old toll gates.

He was vice-president of the American-German National bank from the time of its incorporation in 1873 and was connected with many other business interests in the city, with the retail and wholesale grocery trade and the City Flour Milling company, the Paducah Ice company and other concerns. Mr. Atkins never attended school more than six months during his whole life and his success was won by his aptness and application. He was truly a self-made man.

Thoughtfulness for others and kindness made him a charitable man, for which he was honored. Business never interfered with his religious duties and Mr. Atkins, a member of the Broadway Methodist church, was a steward and a trustee and had been identified with that denomination for years. He was a charter member of the Ingleside lodge, I. O. O. F., and was a member of the widows' and orphans' committee of that order with Capt. J. E. Williamson, whose death occurred over two months ago. He was also a member of the Union Encampment, No. 70, a branch of the Odd Fellows lodge. Mr. Atkins had been a member of the general council of this city and was interested in the civic welfare.

Mr. Atkins was taken ill a few weeks ago at his home, where he had lived so long. It was first thought that his illness would be brief and he would be able to get again, but owing to his advanced age and his feeble condition death's grasp caught him. Death was the result of complications of kidney trouble and malaria fever. The deceased had married twice. He was wedded to Miss Christiana Jones in 1850 and at her death he was married to Miss Florence E. Lee, who died some years ago. His son, Mr. Edward L. Atkins, survives, besides two sisters, Mrs. Emily Williams, of this city, and Mrs. Sarah Agnew, of California. His grandchildren who survive are: Mrs. Elizabeth Graham, E. L. Atkins, Jr., Grace and Elmonia Atkins, all children of his son.

The funeral was held at the Broadway Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Grant T. Sullivan, assisted by the Rev. M. E. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist church. The burial was at Oak Grove cemetery in the family lot, under the auspices of the Ingleside lodge of Odd Fellows. The pallbearers were: Honorary—J. L. Bethshares, G. C. Crumbaugh, J. R. Puryear, E. H. Covington, Sr., J. L. Webb and Dr. J. G. Brooks. Active—L. B. Ogilvie, C. R. Hall, W. A. Martin, W. S. O'Brien, W. H. Patterson and Dr. H. P. Sights.

With every hook and corner loaded with freight the City of Saltville arrived at 7 o'clock this morning from the Tennessee river, delayed many hours in handling cotton seed. She had 3,100 sacks of this, which was piled four sacks high on her deck and to the second deck in the center. Her cargo was composed of miscellaneous merchandise, but there was a lull in the passenger business. She departed a short time later for St. Louis. With prospects for more water in the Tennessee the Saltville will not abandon the trade.

Capt. Richard S. Council, pilot, and Judge McMahon, engineer, popular rivermen, have purchased the little packet boat Royal for $2,550 and will, beginning next week, enter her in the Paducah and Pine Bluff trade up the Tennessee. Captain Council left at 9:40 o'clock this morning by rail for Golconda with Engineer McMahon and they will bring the boat here this evening, arriving about 6 o'clock. She will be repainted, a new pilot wheel installed and other repairs made. Captain Council expects to start her out next Monday, leaving on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and returning Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, three trips a week. She will lay over here every Sunday. Pine Bluff is 65 miles from here and her new owners anticipate a profitable business. She formerly ran in the Golconda trade until business demanded a larger boat.

The towboat Mary Anderson brought in a tow of coal from Caseyville Saturday evening and will leave today for a return trip.

The crew on the City of Saltville gave many descriptions of the wreck at Shiloh park and vicinity. They say that trees are uprooted and none left standing, while large cannon balls were rolled for long distances. The old brick building at Pittsburg Landing is said to have been blown entirely away and the bricks cannot be found.

Shy a number of roustabouts, the Henry Harley left as usual this morning for Cairo. Saturday deckhands were so scarce that the captain, clerks and mate were forced to "get busy." Captain Crider said today that roustabouts were plentiful but they refused to work. The City of Saltville was shy a number of deckhands on

Pleased His Majesty.

The dark monarch from sunny Africa was being shown over an engineering place in Salford by the manager, who, in explaining the working of certain machinery, unfortunately got his coat tails caught in it and in a moment was being whirled round at so many revolutions per minute, says Sketchy Bits. Luckily for the manager, his garments were unequal to the strain of more than a few revolutions, and he was hurled, disheveled and dazed, at the feet of the visitor.

That exalted personage roared with laughter, and said something to his interpreter.

"Bah," said that functionary to the manager, "his majesty say he am berry pleased with de trick, an' will you please do it again?"

HOME CONDITION IS SATISFACTORY

HOW HENRY CLEWS VIEWS THE TRADE SITUATION.

Foreign Trade Relations Present Some Complications for the Financiers.

MONEY MARKET IS TIGHTENING

New York, Oct. 18. (Special.)—Three important conditions are contributing to weaken the growing firmness of the New York stock market. These are the growing firmness in money, the gradual passing of stocks from strong into weaker hands and the unfriendly attitude of European banking interests towards recent stock manipulations over here. Against these three adverse influences it will be difficult at the present time to make any great advance in the stock market.

There is a gradual hardening in money rates owing to the steady depletion of bank reserves. Three months' time money is already quoted at 5 per cent. Crop and trade requirements are now approaching their zenith, the result being a forced shifting or contraction of speculative loans, and consequently higher rates for call money. The note of warning has been emphasized by a further advance in the Bank of England rate. It is well known that as our own monetary resources began to decline there was a heavy shifting of American loans to European markets. Much of this borrowing was on account of powerful interests here who were engaged in conducting a speculative campaign which in some respects was unparalleled. Europe disliked our operations of this character, not only because of habitual conservatism but also because of their dangerous character. Foreign bankers have, therefore, administered a timely and much needed rebuke to a certain class of operators; a rebuke that may somewhat discourage their continuance at this time. The only great banking center which has not manifested resentment at our speculative methods is Paris, but Paris has only a secondary interest in our financial affairs, and is just now more intensely occupied over the inflammable political conditions existing in Spain and the danger of a social or political explosion. For this and other reasons our speculative operators are able to find little encouragement at that particular center.

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willimantic, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. ETTA DONOVAN, Box 299, Willimantic, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

minimum clauses of the new bill may cause serious international friction unless handled with great care by President Taft. As our gifted president is fortunately endowed with a high degree of tactfulness, it is probable that we shall escape serious difficulties; but this uncertainty will not be removed until next spring when the objectionable clauses go into effect. Another questionable detriment has been the injury to the cotton crop, which cannot but impair the prosperity of the south. Many farmers will make handsome profits on their crops, while others will be more or less impoverished by failure and manufacturing interests and consumers will be more or less discontented at the abnormally high price which that staple now commands. Every grower is willing that the southern grower should have a good profit for his product, but above all it is desirable that such profits should be well distributed. In the interior there is a more optimistic tone than in the cities of the Atlantic seaboard. This is, of course, due to the remarkably rapid development of our national resources; something not always sufficiently realized at eastern financial centers, which are naturally the most sensitive to financial strain and impending difficulties. It may be necessary to indulge in periods of caution in the conduct of our business affairs, but in the long run the pessimists and the obstructionists are sure to be left behind in this favored country.

The future of the stock market is likely to witness considerable irregularity. Prices have already undergone considerable recession, but stocks do not look cheap when compared with prevailing high rates of interest. Prospective increases in dividends have been amply discounted, and the speculative forces which were responsible for the late rise have been materially weakened by recent liquidation. The big operators are steadily feeding out stocks on every rise, the result being to materially weaken the technical situation as stocks pass from strong into weaker hands. At present there is no extensively short interest to support the market in case of a break. Resistance would have to come entirely from the big operators, who as their holdings diminish have less reason for supporting prices. The probability, therefore, are for an active market with sharp movements in both directions and the general tendency towards a lower and safer level.

TRAGIC END TO DIPLOMAT.

London, Oct. 18.—William I. Buchanan, of Buffalo, N. Y., former American minister to the Argentine Republic and Panama, who has been closely identified with several American diplomatic missions, met a tragic death last night on a London street. He was discovered lying on a sidewalk in Park Lane near the American embassy in a dying condition a few minutes before 12 o'clock.

There were no marks of violence on the body nor had robbery been committed. Was Well Known Diplomat. Washington, Oct. 18.—Since President Cleveland's last administration, Mr. Buchanan has, irregularly it is true, but with very short intervals of intermission, been connected with the department of state in some of the most important diplomatic work that has engaged the attention of the department, and the uniform success that has attended his undertakings and his fine personality have caused him to be regarded as one of the most successful diplomats in his relations with the Latin-American peoples, not only because of his complete mastery of the Spanish language, but because of his ability to enter into the peculiar mental processes of the South and Central American people.

Settled Boundary Dispute. Mr. Buchanan was born in Covington, O., Sept. 10, 1853. He was sent to Sioux City, Ia., when about 24 years old, where he entered business as a merchant. So well did he manage the Corn Palace Exposition held in that city that he was called upon to represent his state at the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago.

Mr. Buchanan was appointed United States minister to the Argentine Republic by President Cleveland in 1894. He devoted himself to extending and improving American trade with South America generally and with the Argentine Republic especially. Incidentally he negotiated a reciprocity treaty between Argentina and America and gave great promise of mutual benefit to the business interests of the countries, but the treaty failed of ratification by the United States senate.

One of his most important achievements while in Buenos Ayres was a settlement of a fierce boundary dispute between Argentina and Chile, which threatened to involve the two countries in war. Although a Democrat, Mr. Buchanan was retained at his post for several years after the retirement of President Cleveland.

Mr. Buchanan, as director general, successfully managed the Buffalo Pan-American exposition. Scarcely had he finished his service as a delegate to the second Pan-American conference, held in the city of Mexico in 1902, before he was again drafted into the diplomatic service to become the first United States minister to Panama, where, owing to his tact, he was able to adjust many of the difficult issues that had arisen as the result of the separation of the province of Panama from the parent state of Colombia.

Voluntarily relinquishing that post when his work was done, Mr. Buchanan went to South America and later to Europe as representative of large business concerns. But soon another call came from the state department, and he went first to the Rio conference and then to Venezuela. American concessions and diplomatic business generally were in bad shape in that country, and Mr. Buchanan succeeded in arranging for a private settlement of four of the five great American claims against Venezuela and for the reference to The Hague tribunal of the fifth.

He had been named as agent for America in the presentation of this case—that of the Orinoco Steamship company—to The Hague tribunal, when he left New York for London recently, and was in conference with the state department almost up to the day of his death in regard to that business.

Mr. Buchanan's permanent residence has been in Buffalo since 1901. He is survived by a widow, a son and a daughter.

Taking Time Out. Roebottom was a roofer. He was engaged on a Muckle street house. One day, as he was lunching, he was heard to give a yell of pain. "What's the matter, Roebottom?" a carpenter asked. "I got a nail in my foot," the roofer answered. "Well, why don't you pull it out?" said the carpenter. "What! In my dinner hour?" yelled Roebottom reproachfully.—Philadelphia Record.

The largest electrically controlled switch tower in the world recently was put into service by a railroad at Providence, R. I. It is equipped with seventy-seven switch levers, providing 266 combinations.

ON THE BATTERY.

Noon Hour Finds Always Some Incident of Interest.

One of the most interesting places in the city at noon is Battery Park. No other place in the lower part of the city offers so attractive a half-hour outing. Not only does the sea air attract many, but there is always something interesting for the curious. Around the basin in which are anchored the motor boats belonging to the police department and the department of docks a crowd of ways gathers, watching the policemen of the harbor squad turning up their motor boats preparatory to going out on a cruise. Now and then one of the motor boats, with four or five policemen on board, comes chugging up the river and for a time the excitement is more intense. Last week two big yachts to large to enter the basin had to anchor out in the river. The visitors were transported from the large yachts into the basin by launches. A great crowd gathered around to watch the transfer of the people from the large yachts to the launches and also to see the launches enter the basin.

The fireboat New Yorker, whose station is near the aquarium, is always an attraction. While a gang of workmen was driving down new piles near the fireboat's station recently the boat was anchored alongside the department of docks' pier with the result that scores of persons not knowing of the change, inquired about her every day.

The arrival of a boatload of immigrants from Ellis Island is one of the best of the Battery shows, a special feature being the welcome offered to many of the newcomers. A few days ago a young man who had just passed through the bureau on reaching the street was seized by six young women who threw their arms around him and kissed him. The young man seemed much embarrassed, and the embarrassment did not abate any when some young man in the crowd made a smacking noise with his lips.

Long before the Ellis Island boat arrives a crowd of the immigrants' friends begin to gather in the park. Men, women and children line the sea wall and wait for the boat. When it draws near the wall the men swing their hats and handkerchiefs, while the women pull bandanas from their heads and wave them. The immigrants on the boat return the welcome. If the immigrants are Italian there are always a number of trucks backed against the curb outside of the bureau for them. A dozen or more Italians are piled on these trucks, baggage and all. There is not enough room for the men to sit down, so they have to remain standing. Then another man, who acts as director or guide, gives orders to the driver and the trucks roll away to one of the Italian quarters.—New York Sun.

Wanted a Minister.

"Is there a preacher on this train?" asked a large, dark-visaged man as he passed from one sleeper to another says the Chicago Record-Herald.

At last, after he had loudly repeated his query for the fifth or sixth time, a grave-looking gentleman laid aside a book and rose up from a seat near one end of the car.

"I have the privilege of being a minister of the gospel, sir," he said.

"Can I be of any service to you?"

"Yes," said the large passenger. "A fellow back in the dining car has bet me $5 that it wasn't Let's wife who got Joseph into trouble, and I thought you might have a Bible with you, so I could prove he was wrong and get the money."

"My lazy son has at last decided on a profession that he thinks he'll like."

"Good. What has he chosen?"

"He wants to be a lineman for a wireless."

POSTUM

Coffee is a hidden but powerful enemy to one's progress in life. Its subtle, narcotic poison, weakens heart, interferes with digestion and has a definite and destructive effect on the nervous system. People who are content to load themselves with impediments to progress, who refuse to supply body with food and drink of the kind needed to make up for the daily disintegration of nerve and brain tissue, must stand aside in the race.

The ones who are properly fed, will surely win the laurels.

Postum furnishes the gluten and phosphates of grain needed by Nature to nourish brain and nerves with food. When made right, that is, boiled 15 minutes after boiling begins, it has a delicious taste similar to the mild, high-grade Javas, but with none of the bad effects of coffee.

There are those who are entirely careless as to what goes into the stomach, but the one who would make all his movements tend towards health and possible greatness can know by a personal test.
